

Friends of Kings Park Stirling - Privacy Policy

Friends of Kings Park Stirling are committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. We try to limit the information we gather from our members and other who contact us. The data collected will be adequately protected in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

What we collect?

We may collect the following information:

- name and contact information including postal and email addresses and telephone numbers
 - other information which is specifically relevant to our aims of promoting and improving Kings Park.
- We collect information about you when you become a member of Friends of Kings Park.

What we do with the information we gather?

The information is used to campaign for the preservation of the environment and heritage of Kings Park, including the following activities:

- To provide news and information on campaigns, events and activities in and around Kings Park - by email, post or text messages
- To maintain records of membership subscriptions and donations;
- To circulate membership and fund-raising appeals;

Who do we share the data with?

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties.

Security

In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

Requests for information

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you by writing or emailing Friends of Kings Park.

Correcting information

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email us as soon as possible, at the address below. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.

Removing information

If you have any questions about our privacy policy, you no longer wish receive communications by a particular means, e.g. by email, or if you wish us to remove all information that we hold on you, please contact us at fokpstirling@outlook.com.